LUCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section continued fair and warm to-night; followed by increasing cloudiness and thundersterms Saturday afternoon and night; co-ler by Saturday night; sonthwesterly shifting to northwesterly winds.

School Board.—At the monthly meeting last night of the City School Board there were present Superintendent Kemper and Messrs. Aitcheson, Thompson, Marbury, Carne, Harrison, Bryant and Vincent. Mr. Marbury ansided

Mr. Vincent reported that the bill of Alfred Lane of $29 for whitewashing, presented at the last meeting represented at the last meeting referred to the finance committee, had been corrected and made $16.50. That and other bills for supplies were ordered to be paid.

Mr. Vincent reported that the matter of paving on the Wolfe street side of Washington hallding was before the of Washington building was before the City Council, where it had been held up by one member.

The Superintendent reported that, in accordance with the order of the Board, the schools had been closed, after a very successful session, on the the days designated; that the closing exercises were of a most creditable character and showed evidences of improvement in every direction. This was particularly noticeable of Lee school and the appearance of the pupils of that school he had never seen excelled at any previous closing exercises he had ever attended.

Mr. Carne called attention to the fact that in Peabody building there were rooms in which pupils were taught which were without windows, having only large doors. He offered the fol-

Resolved, That hereafter no schools under the control of this board, shall be kept in rooms without windows; and that the committee on school-houses and furniture he directed to have constructed in the assembly rooms of Pea-body building, temporary partitions so that two of the schools which now oc-cupy the lower story of the building may be transferred to a room where there is sufficiency of light and air.

It was thought by some of the members that some of the doors in the rooms could be converted into windows or other means provided for better ventilation, and the matter was referred to the committee on school-houses and

Mr. Vincent stated that the time had arrived for the annual overhauling of the buildings and that he was almost afraid to report the repairs needed for some of them. The two colored school houses needed new roofs, and one of them, Hallowell building, needed new weather boarding on three sides. One room in Peabody building also needed a new floor. The committee on schoolhouses and furniture was authorized to have needed repairs made to the school buildings. The application of Miss Mary Payne for a position as teacher was referred to the Superintendent.

The Superintendent stated that the examinations for teachers would be held on August 11th and 12th.

Jr. O. U. A. M.—Alexandria Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics, held its regular weekly meeting last night, which was very largely attended. One new member was initiated and one application for membership was received. After all formal business had been disposed of, Deputy State Councilor W. D. Zimmerman installed the recently elected officers for the executive the avening the ensuing term. During the evening Past Councilor C. H. Pickin presented, lent condition both numerically and financially, and starts off the ensuing term with brighter prospects than here-

THE CAT OVERTURNED THE LAMP .-A serious accident occurred at the res idence of Mrs. Julia English, near Laurel, Md., Wednesday night. A cat, which was being driven from the room, which was being driven from the room, by some means overturned a lamp, the oil from which ignited and ran over Miss Edith English, burning her very painfully about the neck, back, and face. Her sister, Miss Miteline, who came to assist in extinguishing the flames was hurned about the the flames, was burned about the hands, but in rolling Miss Edith on the grass put out the flames. Mrs. English and her family formerly lived in this city, where they have many friends. A message received here this morning stated that both the young ladies are doing well and that they were not se-riously burned.

DIED FROM HIS INJURIES.—A dispatch from Rochester, N. Y., says:
"Richard Hall was run over by a trolley car in this city Wednesday night, dying seven hours later at the Homecapathic Hospital. His left leg was broken twice below the knee and his left hand was supplyed. The man was attempted. was crushed. The man was attempting to alight from a car when he slipped and fell under the trailer. Hall came to this city recently from Alexandria, Va., and was forty-six years of age."

It is said that the man referred to was a colored man who lived here some time since, though the police say they know of no such man. It was said by some this morning that the man was Buck Taylor, who recently escaped from jail here and who had taken the name of Hall.

A LOYE-SICK INDIVIDUAL.—Charles Webb, an ebony-hued individual, who has long entertained tenderness for a certain dusky female, saw her walking with a rival yesterday, and afterwards concluded life was a burden. He re-paired to Smoot's barn, a short distance north of the city, and carefully loaded a pistol which he pointed at his head and pulled the trigger. The ball passed through his hat. He made a second attempt with the same result, the bullet again passing through his caputical covering. He finally reconsidered his rash determination, put the pistol in his pocket and started for home.

In the Corporation Court to-day Mr. J. T. Burke was appointed and qualified as administrator of the estate of the late R. J. Daingerfield and also as guardian of Elizabeth R., Charlotte R. and R. J. Daingerfield, jr.

Mr. C. R. Howard while riding a wheel on Mt. Vernon avenue, near this city, yesterday evening, collided with the team of Mr. Charles King. Mr. Howard was slightly bruised and his bicycle was badly broken up. The Washington Southern Railway officials in this city say that that road carried only half as many passengers to Richmond to attend the recent Confederate reunion as it did on the occasion of the unveiling of the Lee monument there several years ago. A freight train which left this city for Washington about 6 o'clock last night jumped the track at Waterloo, and caused a slight delay on the road. The Alexandria local, which leaves here every night at 9:10 o'clock, was abandoned, but the 11:08 o'clock local left without delay. The wrecked freight car was removed.

Mr. J. M. Little, of Washington spoke to a large audience at the Union Mission tent last night. The services this evening will be conducted by the C. E. Society of the M. P. Church. This will be the last week of the tent meetings on north Washington street, as the tent will be moved on Monday next to the fair grounds at the head of King street.

A horse belonging to Mr. A. Dean, living on south Lee street, which was roaming the streets last night, was found this morning with a severe cut on the neck. It is believed by some that the cut was the act of some malicious person, while others think that the horse injured itself. The horse left blood tracks on several of the streets in the lower part of the city.

Mr. M. Schuler will have at his in market to-morrow some very fine spring lamb, beef, mutton and veal, all home-slaughtered, and at his store on upper King street all early vegetables. He will also have fine spring lamb and ce cold watermelons and cantaloupes.

One of the greatest displays of fireworks ever witnessed by the people of Alexandria will be given at Meunt Vernon Park to-mor-row night. There will also be fancy dancing and music by the 4th Artillery Band.

R. E. Knight's place will be open all day o-morrow, where all can get fireworks. Read
